DISCUSSION ITEMS/REPORTS

- Klager / MECC - Klager Elementary renovations are underway and on schedule. Klager Summer Learning Lab is providing reading, writing, and math skill support for K-2 students. Due to the renovations happening at Klager students are receiving their summer support at Riverside. MECC is providing Kids Club summer care for school-aged children at Riverside this year. Families have access to summer care from 7:00am-5:00pm.
- Riverside - None
- Jr-Sr High School - None
- Athletic Department - Starting practice date for high school fall sports is August 11th. We are still currently searching for an Athletic Trainer for the upcoming school year. There are many changes happening with the Cascades Conference starting in the 2026-27 school year. East Jackson and Homer are both leaving for the Big 8 Conference, Addison and Vandercook are also discussing leaving. I will put together an information sheet for the August meeting highlighting the pros and cons of staying in the Cascades or moving to the TCC.
- Special Education - None
- Technology - Rooms are disconnected and work is underway. Thank you to Brian and his team in assisting with the disconnecting of classrooms. We have started hooking up the rooms that are complete. We are working on getting powerschool updated for the upcoming year as well as the few applications that need to be moved over to Clever.
- Business Office - Busy closing out the 2024-2025 school year and preparing grants for literacy. Updated the Board on the changes to state funding.
- Buildings & Grounds - Building and Grounds Team is hard at work cleaning classrooms, maintaining lawns, servicing the buses and supporting Bond work.
- Board - None

SUPERINTENDENT REPORT

- The 90 day entry plan previously shared has been updated.
- Currently working on building relationships in the community and on August 1, 2025 will begin reaching out to staff.
- Will be attending the Manchester Community Fair.
- Manchester Chicken Broil was this Saturday July 19, 2025. It was a lot of fun and greatly executed.
